Consumer Protection Guide

Hello and Happy Holidays!

As we enter this year's holiday season, our office is providing the 2019 Holiday Consumer Protection Guide to help Floridians be informed and equipped with consumer tips and product safety information. This time of year is a time of joy and giving, but we must stay vigilant to protect ourselves and our loved ones from recalled products and charity scams.

Our guide offers an array of consumer tips—from protecting yourself when making online purchases to avoiding charity scams. It also includes a list of items recalled by the U.S. Consumer Products Safety Commission in the past year. During the holiday rush, Floridians are purchasing large amounts of toys and household goods, so we have compiled a list of these recently recalled items that are particularly risky to children and teens. I hope all Floridians will familiarize themselves with this guide, so that together we can build a stronger, safer Florida.

If you have questions about the guide, contact our Citizens Services hotline at 1-866-9-NO-SCAM, or visit our website at www.MyFloridaLegal.com. More information on recalls and a list of recalled items year-round can be found at www.CPSC.gov/en/Recalls.

Wishing you a safe and happy holiday season!

Sincerely,

Shopping Tips for the Holiday Season

As so many purchases are made for and during the holiday season, it is a time to be particularly mindful of ways purchases can cost more than expected. Below are tips to keep your money safe while getting the most out of it.

- ❖ When shopping online it is often wise to pay with a credit card instead of a debit card, if possible. Both payment methods allow you to dispute a charge if the merchandise never arrives or is different from what was ordered. However, with a debit card, the purchase is already deducted from your bank account and it may take days or weeks for your bank to reverse the charge.
- ❖ When ordering online, ensure that the web browser has a secure connection before inputting or submitting payment information. In the address bar, a padlock should appear if your session is secure.
- ❖ Some debit and credit card providers offer one-time card numbers to be used for online transactions to further protect their cardholders. Log in to your account or contact your card provider to see if it offers this service.
- ❖ When shopping online there are often additional costs such as shipping and handling. Be sure to account for such additional charges when comparing prices across retailers or when making the choice between an online purchase or an in-store purchase.
- ❖ Keep your receipts and be sure you understand retailers' return policies and periods so you can return any unwanted item(s) for a full refund.
- ❖ Some retailers offer layaway plans or other payment options to allow shoppers to pay for items in installments or at a later date. Before agreeing to such a plan, be sure to ask whether the retailer charges a fee for its program and whether payments and any fees are refundable if the purchase is canceled or returned.
- ❖ When purchasing gift cards, check whether there is an additional activation fee, and provide the activation receipt to the recipient. Additionally, consider the retailer's financial situation before buying a gift card. If the retailer closes or declares bankruptcy, the recipient may not be able to enjoy the card's value.
- ❖ Shop with retailers that you are familiar with or have done business with in the past. If shopping with a new retailer, check with the Better Business Bureau at www.bbb.org to determine whether other customers have filed complaints against them.

Tips for Charitable Giving

While the holiday season is a time for kind and generous deeds, scam artists may seek to take advantage of this spirit of giving. Below are tips to help ensure your charitable dollars do the most good this season.

- ❖ Before donating, ensure that the charity is registered and eligible to solicit in the State of Florida. Check to see if the charity is registered with the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services at www.FDACS.gov/ConsumerServices or by calling 1-800-HELP-FLA (1-800-435-7352).
- ❖ Additionally, be sure you understand how much of a donation will actually go toward charitable programs, as opposed to administrative and fundraising expenses. To learn about a registered charity's spending, visit www.FDACS.gov/ConsumerServices and click on "Check-A-Charity" to ensure that its spending aligns with your values. Also, Charity Navigator at www.CharityNavigator.org and GuideStar at www.Guidestar.org assess and evaluate charities by providing information regarding the charity's mission, programs, and finances.
- ❖ Do your homework and review any charitable solicitation carefully. Search online to see what others may be saying about the charity. You may also visit www.FDACS.gov/ConsumerServices and use the "Business/Complaint Lookup," check with the Better Business Bureau's Wise Giving Alliance at www.Give.org, or visit www.CharityNavigator.org to determine whether the charity has any complaints against it.
- ❖ Do not give your credit card number or bank account information to someone who has called or emailed you unsolicited. If you are interested in donating to a charity that has contacted you, ask them to mail you information about the charity and a pledge form. Legitimate charities should have no problem with this request.
- ❖ Watch out for similar sounding charities. It is not unusual for sham charities to choose names that sound like the names of legitimate, widely-known charities.
- ❖ Know the difference between tax exempt and tax deductible. An organization that is tax exempt does not have to pay taxes, but this does not necessarily mean that a contribution you have made to it is tax deductible. To check whether an organization is eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions, visit <https://apps.irs.gov/app/eos/>.

Product Recalls

With so many purchases made in anticipation of and throughout the holidays, it is more important than ever to be vigilant about the safety of the products brought into your home. What follows is a compilation of 2018-2019 U.S. product recalls in an easy-to-use guide that I hope you will consult as you give and receive items this holiday season.

The guide reproduces details about recalled toys, baby items, sporting and recreational goods, furniture, and household products that are either designed for or pose a particular risk to children and teenagers. These items were among the more than 200 products recalled by the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission between November 15, 2018, and October 31, 2019. For more information regarding these products or for a comprehensive list of all product recalls, please visit www.CPSC.gov.

Dangerous and defective products are the subject of recalls every year. When a product is recalled, the law requires manufacturers and retailers to remove the products from their shelves. However, products subject to recall sometimes slip by undetected and remain on shelves. Others may have been purchased before a recall was even issued. And, many products often continue to be offered for sale through online reseller websites well after a recall has been announced. Therefore, it is always important to do your research to make sure that the products you are buying or bringing into your home are safe and free of defect.

Taking a few minutes now to peruse this collection of recalled items will ensure a safer and more enjoyable holiday for you and yours.

Baby and Toddler Goods

Skip Hop Tuo Convertible High Chairs

Hazard: The legs on the high chair can detach from the seat, posing fall and injury hazards to children.

This recall involves Skip Hop's Tuo convertible high chairs with charcoal gray or silver/white with clouds fabric. They have a reversible seat pad, removable tray, 5-point harness, beechwood footrest and legs. The high chairs can be converted into a toddler chair. One of the following style numbers and corresponding date code can be found on the back of the recalled chairs: Style number 304200 (charcoal grey) with date codes HH5/2017, HH6/2017, HH7/2017, HH8/2017, HH9/2017, HH092717, HH030518, HH05182018, and HH05312018; or style number 304201 (silver/white with clouds) with date codes HH092917 and HH010518. These high chairs were sold in stores nationwide and online at Amazon.com and SkipHop.com for about $160.

Remedy: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled high chairs and contact Skip Hop at 888-282-4674 for a full refund or an e-gift card of equal value.

Hot Mom Bed Rails

Hazard: The bed rails fail to meet the federal mandatory standard for portable bed rails, posing entrapment and suffocation hazards to young children.

This recall involves bed rails with model number Boom09. Hot Mom is printed on the bottom right corner of the bed rail. They measure approximately 59 inches long by 2 inches deep by 25 inches high. They have a plastic perimeter with two mesh centers and are sold with a light blue and white cover. These rails were sold online at Amazon.com for about $60.

Remedy: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled bed rails and contact Hot Mom at 855-723-3893 to return them for a full refund.

IKEA MATVRA Infant Bibs

Hazard: The snap on the bibs can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children.

This recall involves the MATVRÅ bibs for infants sold in a two pack with one blue and one red bib with a snap at the back of the neck. The blue bib has a green seam along the outside with white polka dots. The red bib has a yellow seam along the outside with red polka dots. MATVRA, IKEA and the IKEA logo are printed on a white tag on the back of the bib. These bibs were sold exclusively at IKEA stores nationwide and online at IKEA-USA.com for about $2.

Remedy: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled bibs and return them to any IKEA store for a full refund.
