Committee Priorities for Discussion.....Sheriff William Snyder, chair

1. Rick Swearingen, FDLE: Training for law enforcement:

- FDLE created a 2-hour block of training.
- Accreditation for training.
- Evaluating identification and recognition of signs of human trafficking.
- Training is available but as an elective and it costs money – it's not mandatory.
- Is there a need for mobile training teams?
- Is there a need for mandatory law enforcement training?
- Detailed heat map to identify areas where human trafficking pervades in Florida.

2. William Snyder, Sheriff: Building court capacity for human trafficking cases:

- “Dependency Judges” – create judges within each circuit specializing in handling HT cases.
- Explore “Prostitution Courts” modeled on the drug court system (Miami-Dade could do the pilot).
- Conduct a 1-2 day seminar for all judges, statewide, to get them better-attuned to HT; seminar could include education on the typical victims, pertinent to federal and Florida statutes, effect of court actions on victims.

3. Philip Thorne, Chief:

- Create a “Johns” school modeled on a Minnesota program that uses evidence-based, best practices approach to impart a strong message of the increased costs “Johns” will pay in Florida, along with a statewide awareness campaign for the costs of engaging prostitutes.

4. Katherine Rundle, State Attorney: Prosecutions:

- Continue early communication between prosecutors and law enforcement; Law enforcement should strive to involve prosecutors as early as possible.
- Discuss with FPAA to broaden the scope of charges reported.

5. Christy Daly, DJJ Secretary:

- Process map of trafficking victims from point-of-entry to the point of receiving care.
