Rulemaking is not necessary as the statute defines the requisites of the enforcement authority.
501.204(2), F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	The change in the Statute modified enforcement authority of the agency under Chapter 501 by bringing currently through 7/1/2015 the consideration and weight given to interpretations of the Federal Trade Commission and federal courts relating to s. 5(a)(1) of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. s. 45(a)(1). Rulemaking is not necessary as the statute defines the requisites of the enforcement authority.
895.06, F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	The change in the Statute added that information held by an investigative agency pursuant to an investigation of a violation of s. 895.03 is confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. Rulemaking is not necessary as the statute defines the requisites of the enforcement authority.

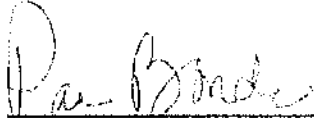

Office of the Attorney General
2015-2016 Annual Regulatory Plan

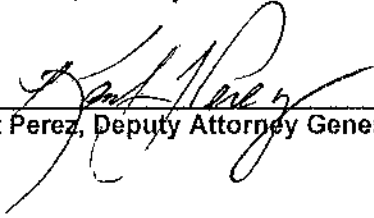

Section 120.(1)(d)

This certification verifies that the undersigned have reviewed this Annual Regulatory Plan and verify that the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) regularly reviews its rules to determine if those rules remain consistent with OAG's rulemaking authority and the laws implemented and that OAG performed its most recent review during June through September of 2015.
