

Dual officeholding, water control commissioner

Number: AGO 2001-14

Date: March 01, 2001

Subject:
Dual officeholding, water control commissioner

Mr. Michael Crowley
Central Broward Water Control District
8020 Stirling Road (Davie)
Hollywood, Florida 33024

RE: DUAL OFFICEHOLDING--MUNICIPALITIES--SPECIAL DISTRICT--WATER CONTROL DISTRICT--water control district commissioner may serve as city commissioner. Art. II, s. 5(a), Fla. Const.

Dear Mr. Crowley:

On behalf of the Commissioners of the Central Broward Water Control District, you ask substantially the following question:

May a member of the Board of Commissioners of the Central Broward Water Control District simultaneously hold the office of city commissioner without violating the dual officeholding prohibition of Article II, section 5(a), Florida Constitution?

In sum:

A member of the Board of Commissioners of the Central Broward Water Control District may simultaneously hold the office of city commissioner without violating the dual officeholding prohibition of Article II, section 5(a), Florida Constitution.

Article II, section 5(a), Florida Constitution, provides in part:

"No person shall hold at the same time more than one office under the government of the state and the counties and municipalities therein, except . . . any officer may be a member of a . . . statutory body having only advisory powers."

This constitutional provision prohibits a person from serving in more than one state, county, or municipal office simultaneously. The prohibition applies to both elected and appointed offices.[1] The term "office" is not defined by the Constitution, although the Supreme Court of Florida has stated that the term "implies a delegation of a portion of the sovereign power to, and the possession of it by, the person filling the office"[2] Thus, in determining whether a particular position is an employment or office, careful consideration must be given to the powers and responsibilities imposed upon that position by statute, charter or ordinance.

The constitutional dual officeholding prohibition, however, refers only to state, county, and municipal offices; it does not refer to special district offices.[3] The courts and this office have therefore concluded that the dual officeholding prohibition does not apply to the officers of an independent special district.[4] In Advisory Opinion to the Governor--Dual Office-Holding,[5] the Supreme Court of Florida reiterated that special district officers are not included within the dual officeholding prohibition, concluding that a member of a community college district board of trustees

"is an officer of a special district created to perform the special governmental function of operating a community college and is not a state, municipal, or county officer within the meaning of article II, section 5(a). Thus, the dual office-holding prohibition does not keep a state, county, or municipal officer from serving on a community college board of trustees."

The Central Broward Water Control District operates as an independent special district.[6] Thus, the provisions of Article II, section 5(a), Florida Constitution, are inapplicable to offices of the district.

Accordingly, I am of the opinion that a member of the Board of Commissioners of the Central Broward Water Control District may simultaneously hold the office of city commissioner without violating the dual officeholding prohibition of Article II, section 5(a), Florida Constitution.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Butterworth
Attorney General

RAB/tjw

[1] See Ops. Att'y Gen. Fla. 69-2 (1969) and 80-97 (1980).

[2] See State ex rel. Holloway v. Sheats, 83 So. 508, 509 (Fla. 1919).

[3] While the 1968 Constitution broadened the language of the dual officeholding prohibition to include municipal as well as state and county offices, it does not refer to special districts.

[4] See, e.g., Ops. Att'y Gen. Fla. 71-324 (1971) (member of hospital district's governing body is not an officer within constitutional dual officeholding prohibition); 73-47 (1973) (trustee of junior college district may serve as member of parks, planning, and zoning commission), 75-153 (1975) and 80-16 (1980) (legislator may serve as a member of a community college district board of trustees); 78-74 (1978) (municipal parking board member may serve as member of community college district board of trustees); 85-24 (1985) (mayor may serve on a community redevelopment district established by general law); 86-55 (1986) (member of Big Cypress Basin's governing board may serve as city mayor); 94-42 (1994) (city commissioner may serve on a local multi-agency career service authority); 94-83 (1994) (person may serve on airport authority and on school board); 96-84 (1996) (city commissioner may also serve on area housing commission).

[5] 630 So. 2d 1055, 1058 (Fla. 1994).

[6] See Ch. 98-501, Laws of Florida, and the title to the act stating the act codifies the charter of the district, "an independent special district." The district is listed on the Official List of Special Districts as an independent special district by the Department of Community Affairs. See s. 189.4035(1), Fla. Stat., requiring the Department of Community Affairs to compile the official list of special districts which shall include all special districts in this state and shall indicate the independent or dependent status of each district.