Attorney General Ashley Moody News Release

AG Moody Announces Arrest of Medicaid Provider for More Than $77,000 in Medicaid Fraud

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—Attorney General Ashley Moody’s Medicaid Fraud Control Unit and the Hollywood Police Department arrested the owner and operator of a Medicaid-provider facility for committing more than $77,000 in Medicaid fraud. Senetta Wilson Carter operated Rayfield Family Literacy, a school that provided services for Medicaid recipients, many with severe disabilities. According to the MFCU’s investigation, Carter submitted falsified claims to Medicaid for online-based services not provided.

Attorney General Ashley Moody said, “My Medicaid Fraud Control Unit is dedicated to upholding the integrity of Florida’s Medicaid program. Not only did this owner of a Medicaid facility steal taxpayers’ dollars, but she also took advantage of clients with disabilities who attempted to use her company’s services. I am grateful my MFCU shut down this scheme before more fraud could be committed, and now this defendant will answer for her crimes.”

The investigation revealed that Carter fraudulently billed Medicaid for 10 months. Several interviews with parents or relatives of the Medicaid recipients revealed that RFL attempted to move much of its care online by using electronic tablets. Many patients who could not use the tablets did not receive any help; however, Carter still billed Medicaid for services not rendered.

Carter is charged with one count of Medicaid provider fraud, a first-degree felony and grand theft, a second-degree felony. If convicted, Carter faces up to 45 years in prison. The Broward County State Attorney’s Office in the 17th Judicial Circuit is prosecuting the case.
