

KIM MITCHELL

- Volunteer for Seniors v. Crime in the Tallahassee office.
  - Has served as a Senior Sleuth for eight years.
  - Is the office manager for the Seniors v. Crime Office in Tallahassee.
  - Mitchell's attention to detail and note keeping has resulted in many resolved cases.
  - In one of her successful cases, Mitchell helped an elderly woman save her house from foreclosure.
    - § An accounting department for an agency did not post payments correctly and sold the woman's mortgage to another company.
    - § After several months of relentless communications between the elderly woman and both lending agencies, Mitchell achieved a resolution and the woman was able to remain in her house.
